

The Flowing Stream

100 years of angling with the
New South Wales Rod Fishers' Society

Our Centenary publication, The Flowing Stream celebrates the formation of Rod Fishers in 1904, the dedication of our founders, our efforts and achievements and the pleasures and mateship of fishing, glimpsed through the pages of our journals over the past 100 years.

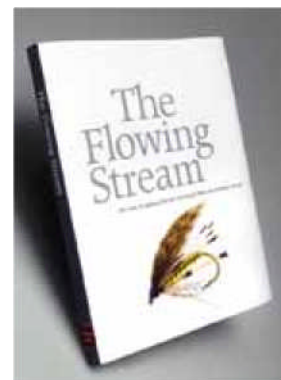

The Flowing Stream includes a history of the Society, 75 fascinating extracts from our journals and numerous photographs and illustrations. It also lists all current members in the 2004 Centenary year.

This is a Limited Edition of 1,000 individually certified copies, with numbers 1-200 reserved for Members of Rod Fishers.

It is a highest quality hard cover book with dust jacket, containing 164 pages of full colour printing on heavy satin art paper.

This publication is a significant record of angling in NSW and a quality collector's book for your angling library.
